Modern pearls

Pearls are staging a bold fashion comeback. And it's radical. It's not a 'just wear three strings of grey pearls with your polo neck' or a 'turn granny's pride-and-joy choker into a witty cuff' comeback. No. It's an architected, conceptualised, modern, reinvented type of comeback. These sculptural pieces have the air of installations. The pearls are reclaiming considerable ground. Go forth. Explore. It's a brave new pearl. AR

GO GREEN

Buy these Nourbel & Le Cavalier earrings, POA, and be the only person you ever meet who has them. Such is the beauty of one-of-a-kind pieces. Cushion-cut emeralds, diamonds and white gold, as if you needed persuading. nourbel-lecavelier.com

OH MY!

The Swiss know what's what when it comes to watches. Take one look into the oval face of this Longines Symphonette, £3,080, with its rose gold and diamonds, and expect to have all your defences vanquished. longines.com

SUCH A CHARMER

Snakes are so much more palatable when they materialise as cocktail rings made by Inesiene. £8,100 each, with lapis lazuli, turquoise cabochons, rubies and diamonds, don't you find? None of that tedious hissing, but plenty of looking jolly pretty on your fingers. inesiene.com

YOU STAR

The Richard Mille Tourbillon Diamond Twister, £702,000: the dreamy chaos of the Milky Way, but in white-gold-and-diamond-watch form. richardmille.com

SWEET HARMONY

What happens when the classic Swiss watchmaker Raymond Weil collaborates with the oh-so-talented violinist Nicola Benedetti? This limited-edition piece of mother-of-pearl-dial, satin-strap, quartz-movement and sapphire-crystal joyfulness, that's what. £1,695. raymond-weil.com

JUICY FRUIT

If troubles melt like lemon drops, imagine what happens if those lemon drops are made of quartz and set in gold with a smattering of diamonds, as a pair of earrings by Kiki McDonough, £1,900? The definitive banishment of any problems for all eternity! kiki.co.uk

LUNAR TICK

Everyone knows that the full moon can make you loopy – that's why you need this Jaeger-LeCoultre moon-phase watch, £32,500. You'll know when it's coming so you can harness your power and be extraordinary, not mad. jaeger-lecoultre.com

STACKS OF FUN

There's no such thing as too many rings. Fact. Stack as many as you can of these Pandora gold bands set with cubic zirconia, £275, onto your fingers. Maybe try and break the world record for 'person wearing the most jewellery ever'. pandora.net

LADY LUCK

Some turn to cookies to tell their fortune – we prefer this 'lucky' diamond and gold Fortune bracelet by Mappin & Webb, £4,850. Wear it to a game of poker and you're BOUND to win. mappinandwebb.com

LEADING LADIES

Women are awesome. Which is reason enough to design a range of Heroine jewellery just to celebrate their awesomeness. Get someone to buy you this Carat Indira ring, £194. Because you're awesome. caratlondon.com

LIKE MAGIC

Gather round, fairytale fans. Sybarite has designed a collection inspired by Hans Christian Andersen's stories. From diamond tin soldiers to little lamp earrings like these, £17,400, it's a world of magic. sybaritejewellery.com
